

No Oil-Change Megashop on Warner Road

- What: Paperwork has been filed with the City of Tempe to open a large, multi-bay oil change shop in South Tempe
- Where: The Southeast corner of McClintock and Warner, on the land of the Shell Station that was recently torn down.
- Why: Neighbors of South Tempe don't need and don't want excessive traffic, noise, and fumes that come with high-volume oil change automotive shop. Although convenient, this type of shop does not add to the quaint community that we love so much! We also want to keep our property values strong!
- What would we prefer? What would we prefer? We want an outpost that adds to our quality of life and our property values. A locally-owned cafe where families and neighbors can meet would be ideal.
